President's Message

June 7

David Throop, "Taking a Bet on the Truth"

'The search for truth is our sacrament. And service is its prayer.' We are called to action, based on the truths we know. But there's a catch. Revelation isn't finished - tomorrow may prove today's truths to be partial, provisional. Or just wrong. Our free churches have struggled with the question ever since the Pilgrims -- How do act boldly, faithfully, given that we might be in error? We look back to our Unitarian roots to learn how UU's serve with confidence even as we walk in doubt. David Throop has been a UU for 30+ years, in six different congregation under twenty UU ministers. In all of these, he has been active in the Unitarian Lunch Ministry. He, his wife and their four children attend Bay Area UU Church in SE Houston, where he is the head coach for Covenant Groups. He does lay preaching all around southeast Texas. Visit his blog at uulaypreach.blogspot.com. Plan to join David after the service for a lunch group at the Original Mexican Restaurant at 14th & Market.

Martha Terrill, "Sharing our Creativity"

Evidence shows that humans have been expressing their creativity for thousands of years. Given this knowledge, we must accept that creativity is part of human activity that has evolved over the years. Not just for those whose "star" seems to shine brighter, but for every human being. The idea that a "creative" person, is only one whose works gain public acclamation is a self-deceiving notion. The seeming small everyday acts, personal activities, gestures, & flourishes that we express as we go about our daily lives are really creative endeavors whether we acknowledge them as such or not. Members of the Fellowship are asked to bring their creations: large or small, grandiose or humble to share & collectively celebrate this unique aspect of humanity. Sewing, knitting, singing, recitations, poetry, dance, artworks, tattoos, inventions, woodworking, carpentry, plumbing & wiring, music, playing an instrument.....all creative, all inspiring, all human. Martha is a member of our Fellowship & a professional artist.

Greeter: Sandra Sullivan

Board Member: Bets Anderson

Music: Steve Hodgson

Alan Griffin, "Summer Solstice"

This astronomical event has been celebrated since before written history. What significance can this have for us today? Alan Griffin, retired psychologist, has a long time interest in how people actions are influenced by their environments.

Greeter: Madeleine Baker

Facilitator: Stan Blazyk

Board Member: Fanny DeGesero

POT LUCK AFTER THE SERVICE

Laura Murrell, "Saul Alinsky's Tradition Lives"

Laura Murrell will read "Reveille For Radicals: Lessons from the Life of Saul Alinsky" a sermon by Rev. John E. Gibbons. It seems a good time to repeat this sermon given President Obama's back ground as an organizer and the issues our adult forum is discussing as they read Getting a Grip by Frances Moore Lappé which cites many examples from Alinsky's Industrial Areas Foundation.

Greeter: Vickie Francil

Facilitator: Bets Anderson

Board Member: Amanda Prather

Music: Woody Dickson

The recent annual meeting was a day of joy. Although I worried that your patience was tested when the service lasted longer than usual with the annual business meeting still to conduct, we all enjoyed the music by the UU String Band and felt confirmed by all the members' testimonies. We laughed at our stories and relished what a warm community we are.

There was plenty of food to feed our 60+ attendees. And when the time came, serious attention was paid to issues on the agenda. Volunteers came forth and new members just gathered in that day, joined in the discussions and voting. It was a wonderful ending for my time as your president. The gift of the chalice charm with all the symbols of other religions, was not the frosting on the cake but the chocolate sprinkles on top! I was totally surprised and honored. Around the sanctuary, people were enjoying each other, lingering at the tables, no one in a hurry despite the longer day. And then moving together to get the jobs done of clearing dishes, moving back chairs, each one pitching in until the job was .

Thank you for the honor of allowing me to be your president-none of us knew what challenges the year would hold, but we all hung in there together and grew in numbers and in strength.

Love is the spirit of this church, and service is its gift.

This is our great covenant: to dwell together in peace, to seek the truth in love, and to help one another.

I want to thank Amanda Prather as she rotates off the board for a fine job as secretary. We all relied on her cues to help us remember what needed following up. And what a wonderful group of officers the new board will be starting in July.

And I can never say enough thanks to all the members of the program committee, the A-Team, the Social Action group, the folks who are beautifying our front, the students of the Course in Miracles & of Spirit Circle, the Bowlers-all integral parts of the marvelous community called the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Galveston County. And the additions of the tangential groups of dancers, quilters, AA'ers, Zen folk, Artist Boat, Galveston Art Center and now yoga which add to our core activities, enriching our community.

Thank you,
Susan

ATTIC TREASURES Sale Set for June 12-13

We're in the home stretch for this annual fundraiser for UUFGC!

Remember that the early-bird sale and reception is Friday evening, June 12 from 6-8pm, which will have an admission fee of $5 to cover refreshments. Mardi Mitchell has volunteered to manage refreshments for that evening, so let he know if you'd like to assist.

Sale will be continue on Saturday, June 13 from 8am-1pm. Both events are open to the public, of course. Tell your friends.

The volunteer list is posted on the Fellowship bulletin board. Please add your name if you're not on there already! And dust off your blue UU Volunteer t-shirt to wear during the sale.

Our Sanctuary is used during the week so we won't be able to set up as soon as we have in the past. However, please go ahead and bring items for the sale beginning Sunday, June 7 after the service. We will store things as unobtrusively as possible for a few days.

Beginning Thursday morning, June 11, we have the building all to ourselves and will be able to transform the Sanctuary into our annual thrift shop. Someone will be there most of the day and evening Thursday and Friday. Please bring your donations as soon as possible so we'll have time for sorting and pricing. If you need assistance hauling things to the Fellowship, let any of the volunteers know.

We hope you'll get right to work identifying things you'd like to donate. Solicit donations from your friends too! All donations are tax-deductible as a donation to the Fellowship. Be sure to get a donation receipt.

Over the past two years our microfinance "revolving" fund has made loans totaling $2,250 available to 63 recipients in developing countries, 29 of which have been repaid. We have donated $103.50 to support the activities of Kiva. We make loans as we receive donations and relend as existing loans are repaid. All are welcome to help select loan recipients. Take a look at our current microfinance portfolio at
