A Month of Sundays

Services and Children's Religious Education 10:30 a.m. Adult Forum 9am

February 7

Spirit Circle, "Are You In A State of Grace?"

"Where are you in this moment? -a moment which may be bouncing around with a hundred other moments that we carry with us this day. Or, this moment freighted with weeks, months, a year of preoccupations, stress, worry, running to keep in place - sitting here half-listening, but ready, even anxious to let down a little, share the burdens, hoping for a laugh or two to break the tension, or some serious reflection, and a hug. Is life overwhelming to you? Or, like, preparing your garden in the Fall, are you clearing away dead plants and weeds, readying yourself for the coming year. In these precious moments, clearing away, preparing, thinking through, being present to this and every moment. Are you in a state of "Grace?" If not, why not?" by Rev. Glenn Turner from his Small Group Ministry Spirit Circle group members will explore the concept of "Grace" and encourage us to claim it for ourselves as part of a personal spiritual practice.

Greeter: Sharon Booton

Board Member: Susan Persons

Music: Tony DiNuzzo

February 14

Val Richardson, "What is this Thing Called Love?"

Val will share her thoughts and life experience about love, with a Valentine's Day focus on romantic love. She will share suggestions and hints about how to keep relationships fresh and rewarding. Val became a UU member in Galveston over a decade ago and says she grew and changed in the Fellowship in some wonderful ways. She has been a teacher and counselor throughout her life. Although she now lives in Dallas, she still has sand between her toes and we are occasionally rewarded with a visit and program.

Greeter: Mitch Philpot

Facilitator: Alison Rutledge

Board Member: Fanny DeGesero

Music: Janet Alford

February 21

Mylène Dressler, "What is the Creative Spirit?"

What is creativity, and where does it reside? Are some people "born" with "more" creative spirit, and others less? How can we best harness and develop our own creative powers, not only for our individual needs and good, but in service to others, and in service to the world? Does creativity sometimes serve no purpose at all, other than to test the very limits of human imagination? This lively, open-ended lecture will be filled with questions, challenges, inspiration and encouragement and will explore the powerful forces that invite us to respond imaginatively and courageously to the possibilities and problems we face, as well as the instinct embedded within each of us to dream, make, do and act. Mylène is a published author and an inspirational speaker on creativity. She will offer a "creativity" workshop this afternoon, see information on page 3.

Greeter: Vickie Francil

Facilitator: Tony DiNuzzo

Board Member: Patrick McGuffey

Music: Margaret Canavan

POT LUCK AFTER THE SERVICE

Laura Emerson, "What Has Your Religion Done For You Lately?"

Religion doesn't show up anywhere on Maslow's hierarchy of needs and yet, in a dizzying array of forms, it is pervasive, across cultures and through eons. Is religion somehow natural or necessary to the human condition? If so, why? Laura is a frequent speaker at UUFGC and always challenges us with her thoughtful sermons.

Greeter: Cheryl Henry

Facilitator: Gerry Carr

Board Member: Pete Olsen

Music: Steve Hodgson

President's Message

Dear UUFGC Members and Friends,

The headline for this month is: UUFGC certified 74 members in our Fellowship. Cheryl Henry, Board Secretary, responded to a UUA Data Services poll as part of the 2010 UUA Certification of Membership process.

During February we start planning for several important events coming soon. In March we begin planning our new budget and organize the pledge campaign. In April we nominate candidates for President-Elect and two At Large board seats. In May we call our Annual Meeting.

As President I visited San Antonio Saturday, January 16 and visited with several UUA National Board members. They held their first ever UUA Board meeting in Texas (only the third time in UUA history the board did not meet in Boston) about increasing contact between congregations and our national leadership. During a workshop, I described the Empty Bowl fundraiser and our interactions with Jesse Tree and our recently launched "Bag the Bags" campaign as examples of our interactions with our community. I could have described several other projects where our members are participating.

We are a thriving community of seekers...

I hope you are enjoying the journey as much as I!

John E. Hunger

Love is the spirit of this church, and service is its gift.

This is our great covenant: to dwell together in peace, to seek the truth in love, and to help one another.

Plastic Bags

UUFGC has initiated an effort to limit the use of plastic bags in Galveston. Our members share the opinions of many Galvestonians that a concerted effort is needed to reduce plastic litter in our community and in the trash that we send to landfills. We deplore the deleterious effects of plastic waste in our oceans that kill millions of marine mammals and birds every year.

It is estimated that to produce the 380 billion plastic bags, sacks and wraps used in the United States, 12 million barrels of oil are used annually. Extrapolated world wide this is a huge waste of precious fossil fuel and adds considerably to the world's man-made greenhouse gas emissions. In an era in which fossil fuel reserves are being depleted, we believe that use of renewable bags for purchases is the citizen's responsible choice.

To kick off this effort, we had volunteers at the Kroger grocery store from 2-7 pm every day, January 17-23, to encourage shoppers to use reusable grocery bags instead of the plastic bags provided by the store. We provided information about the problem plastic presents and information about how to "kick the plastic habit" with the use of reusable bags. Inexpensive reusable bags are available at Kroger, as they are at many Island stores, for purchase.

Following this pilot effort, we will meet with community leaders, elected officials and retail establishment managers to address a long term solution to this problem. We have many examples to draw from—increasing numbers of U.S. communities are banning the use of plastic bags in their stores. San Francisco was the first city in the United States to do so. Outside of the United States, many countries, including Ireland and China, have already banned the use of plastic bags.

The first step toward breaking our use of plastic bags is to realize that these bags are a convenience, not a necessity. We can all break the habit of using and discarding plastic bags each time we go to the store by changing our habits. Keep reusable bags by the door, or in the car, and eventually using them will become a habit. We can beautify our surroundings, decrease waste, save oil, and protect marine life with this one change in our behavior! We look forward to some beneficial changes for Galveston in this New Year!

Stay tuned!

Right Relations Covenant

We will communicate openly, honestly & respectfully. We will listen carefully with open minds & open hearts. We will assume good intentions, practice tolerance & resist the temptation to become offended. We will take responsibility for our speech, actions & feelings, & we will be sensitive to possible conflicts & willing to work toward solutions. We will consider other perspectives & will strive not for unanimity but for mutual respect. We will honor our own boundaries & the boundaries of others. We will respect & support the diversity within our congregation & work to foster a welcoming environment. --adopted 12/05

If Once You Have Slept on an Island

If Once You Have Slept on an Island
You'll never be quite the same;
You may look as you looked the day before
And go by the same old name.

You may bustle about in street and shop;
You may sit at home and sew,
But you'll see blue water and wheeling gulls
Wherever your feet may go.

You may chat with the neighbors of this and that
And close to your fire keep,
But you'll hear ship whistle and lighthouse bell
And tides beat through your sleep.

Oh, you won't know why, and you can't say how
Such change upon you came,
But - once you have slept on an island,
You'll never be quite the same!

Around UU

UU B&Bs: Do you dream of inexpensive vacation travel to interesting destinations where you can stay in the homes of friendly people who share your ideals and are happy to provide directions and advice for their area? The UU bed and breakfast directory UU're Home (formerly Homecomings) can fulfill your dream. For 31 years, we've provided a network of hosts in the United States (and a few abroad) who enjoy meeting new friends and who are happy to open their home to like-minded people. You can also become a host and be listed in the directory: see www.UUreHome.com for an application. We have used our donation fund of a few hundred dollars to make 98 loans, totaling $3125, to recipients in developing countries, and we have donated $180 to support the activities of Kiva. We make loans as we receive donations and re-lend as existing loans are repaid. All are welcome to help select loan recipients. We are part of the Unitarian Universalist lending team which has 337 members. Take a look at our microfinance portfolio and history at <http://www.kiva.org/lender/unitarianuniversalist3384>.

WHAT MOVES US at UUFGC

A new opportunity to explore Unitarian Universalism and your own beliefs will be available beginning February 20.

What Moves Us is a program that explores the life experiences of both historic and contemporary Unitarian Universalist theologians, highlighting that which caused in them a change of heart, a new direction, new hope, and a deeper understanding of their own liberal faith.

This program offers a chance for participants to engage with and bring their personal experiences to bear upon the very questions explored by each theologian in turn. It offers not only a pathway for development of one's own personal theology, but a deep understanding of many of the threads of our Unitarian, Universalist, and Unitarian Universalist theological heritage.

What Moves Us peels back the doctrine-rich theological languages that frequently prevent us from affirming our faith experiences with one another and in the wider world. Through shared direct experiences and reflection exercises, readings and lessons, and ethical deliberations, What Moves Us creates an adult faith journey for Unitarian Universalists who want to preach and teach what they already experience but have not been able to articulate: the spiritual power of our faith.

What Moves Us includes ten workshops in which participants DO theology, rather than talking about it. Each session describes an emotion—a change of heart—experienced by a Unitarian or Universalist theologian, which moved them to a new theological understanding.

Participants will examine and apply similar experiences in their own lives.

Trained facilitators will lead the curriculum at each Houston area UU church.

The first and last sessions will be held with all participants from Houston area churches at First UU Church of Houston. The eight sessions in between will be held at UUFGC - day of week will be determined once we see how many people are interested.

The theologians and themes studied in the curriculum are:

- ◆ Hosea Ballou--Happiness (Saturday February 20 at First UU of Houston with author Thandeka)
- ◆ William Ellery Channing—Human nature as divine (Week of February 22)
- ◆ Margaret Fuller—Religion of the heart (Week of March 1)
- ◆ George de Benneville—Divine love (Week of March 8)
- ◆ Charles Chauncy—Human reason (Week of March 22)
- ◆ Sophia Lyon Fahs—Religious impulse (Week of April 5)
- ◆ James Luther Adams—Faith through action (Week of April 19)
- ◆ Forrest Church—Awe and humility (Week of May 3)
- ◆ William Schulz—Organic faith (Week of May 17)
- ◆ Thandeka—Personal experience (Saturday May 22 at First UU of Houston with author Thandeka)

The Principles of the Unitarian Universalist Association

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Supper Circles

Our Fellowship has been having Supper Circles for several years and they have been a great source of joy for many folks. We have tried many different versions of Supper Circles in an effort to include more folks and to promote the main purpose of the Suppers.

Our main reason for having Supper Circles is to provide a venue for folks to meet, discuss and get to know one another. That is often the reason that the host will limit the number of attendees to the number of chairs that will fit around their dining room table, so those who attend can enjoy small group conversation.

Hosting and attending Supper Circles is a wonderful opportunity to taste some delicious food and to indulge in some interesting and stimulating conversations with your fellow UUs.

At times folks are forgetting to sign-up and just show up. This can complicate planning for the host and often makes it harder to get better acquainted with each other.

Please think about hosting a dinner and/or about attending a dinner, especially if you never have. You don't need to have a huge home to do this! And there is no reason we can't have two suppers in one month!

There is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board for both hosting and attending. It will be helpful if those signing up to host would post the date and time and be specific if there is a limit for attending. This way folks can make plans.

And remember if there is a limit and it is full or if you forgot to sign-up, please do not just show -up but plan on making the next Supper Circle or signing up to host a Supper in your home.

Please contact Judy Glaister if you have questions or would like to plan a Supper.

OCTOBER SKY

As the Soviet satellite Sputnik streaks across the heavens in October 1957, it's a source of inspiration for 17-year-old

Homer Hickam (Jake Gyllenhaal), who refuses to follow in his father's footsteps laboring in West Virginia's coal mines.

Hickam would rather reach for the stars -- literally. Drafting a few friends, he sets about crafting a rocket to compete for a science-fair scholarship -- and a chance to change his seemingly immutable future.

The book which was the inspiration for this film is the Galveston Reads selection for 2010, Rocket Boys by Homer

Hickam Jr. Public book discussion at UUFGC will be

Wednesday, February 10 at 7pm in conjunction with the UU

Book Club.

Free admission

Please bring a friend and a snack to share.
