January 10: Rev. Art Severance, "You Have Been Granted A New Year; What Will You Do With it?"

Someone on Facebook said they would be staying up until midnight this year, not to party, but to make sure the old year really left! Last year felt more like we had been sentenced to it, and now we've been granted a reprieve! But what will we do with our new year? Talk about a challenge...

Rev. Art Severance has retired after almost 30 years in ministry. He is the Minister Emeritus at First UU Church in San Antonio where he had served for fifteen years. Then 4 years ago moved back to San Antonio, where he served as minister at First UU Church from 1991-2006. He was recently named Minister Emeritus. He considers himself a "Mystical Humanist on the cusp of Naturalistic Theism with a good sense of humor." Originally from NH, he has been married to his wife, Cathie, since 1973, has 3 married daughters and 5 grandchildren.
