

We welcome the full range of human diversity, that is, age, race, gender, ability, sexual orientation, and ethnicity.

Theme for Sunday Programs in March: "Talents and Gifts"

"The intuitive mind is a sacred gift and the rational mind is a faithful servant. We have created a society that honors the servant and has forgotten the gift." -- Albert Einstein

"Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith..."
Romans 12:6

Please join us as our speakers explore the concept of gifts and talents: the benefit, as well as the responsibility, of identifying our gifts and sharing our talents.

March 3: Rev. Bob Tucker,
"To Reach Out & Touch"

We initiate contact with others with the implication that the contact is friendly, helpful or beneficial. In today's daily news, we read of a plethora of less benign touching in the sexual abuse of others.

Bob is a native of Minnesota and has served churches in South Dakota, Minnesota, Texas and Kansas. He was, for 28 years, the Senior Minister of First Congregational Church of Houston. He is Executive Director Emeritus of the Foundation for Contemporary Theology.

March 10: Rev. Shirley M. Haulotte, LCSW,
"Abundance: I Always Have More Than Enough"

In this world where so many of us are rushing around, stressed, worried about finances, and concerned about the future, we are reminded there are other possibilities. Drawing from the writings of Couturier, Demandes & Kolter, Brethnach, and others, this presentation centers on the meaning of abundance and wealth in our lives. We can learn from those who invite us to change from a feeling of lack to a feeling of abundance. This is not a "how-to" lesson but an invitation to pause and reflect on the meaning of our lives.

Rev. Shirley M. Haulotte, LCSW, a retired University of Texas at Austin Associate Professor, taught graduate students in the School of Social Work. Upon retirement, Shirley attended the International Seminary of Interfaith Studies in New York, graduated, and was ordained as an interfaith minister in 2007. Currently, she is a Chaplain at Dignity Hospice in Austin, where she ministers to individuals at the end of their life and provides spiritual support to their families.

Compassionate Offering: Galveston Seafarers Center, a non-profit, multi-denominational (inter-religious) organization, aimed at serving the needs of those who live and work at sea.

March 17: Cheryl Henry,
"Sharing our Talents & Gifts"

Several members of the Fellowship will share their creative gifts and reflect on the connection between their creative expression and their spirituality. Please join us for this enlightening and intimate service.

Cheryl is a past president of the Fellowship. She currently serves on the Membership Team and facilitates the Fellowship's Chalice Circles. She retired from a career in corporate Training and Development.

March 24: Rev. Dr. Randy Partain,
"What the World Needs"

A lot of people really like the inspiring quote from Howard Thurman that encourages: "Don't ask what the world needs. Ask what makes you come alive and go do it. Because what the world needs is people who have come alive." While it may feel good to bask in the inspiring glow of those words, they don't guide us as well as we may think. Let's talk about what's missing from those words of wisdom -- namely, what to do after we come alive.

Rev. Partain describes himself as a composer, pianist, creative thinker, and theologian. After receiving a doctorate degree in music composition and after working for many years as a music minister in various Christian churches, he became more open about his Humanist (atheist) beliefs.

March 31: Carlos Price, PhD,
"Unlocking our Potential"

When we form opinions about the way things are in our Fellowship or in our personal lives, we often exclude all other possibilities. We will consider ways to unlock our potential.

Carlos is our Board President and also is a retired school district superintendent and university Clinical Associate Professor. He holds a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Memphis. He also has completed graduate work in theology.
